Poor of London Threaten Blood shed if They Are Not Speedily Helped.

WOMEN ENTREAT PREMIER

Mention of His Name at Mass Meeting of Women Greeted With Hisses

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Nov. 6.- The desperate con-dition of the poor of London was brought to the notice of Premier Balfour to-day by a remarkable deputation of the wives and other women relatives of the unem ployed who did not hesitate to tell the premier that unless something is speedlly done to lessen their sufferings there old be bloodshed.

"Don't forget that hungry men are desperate men," said one of the speakrs who all had the same tale to tell of wives and children. Enormous crowds women from all parts of London marched through the streets headed by a deputation which Mr. Balfour received at the office of the local government to the presence of Mr. Balfour. The knowledged that the evil was very real, but he had little to suggest in the way hope that public charity would come to the aid of the unemployed. YOUNG CORBETT ON THE CRIPPLED LIST

Strained Back in Fight-Hands Also Bad-All Engage-

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Word was received yesterday from Harry Tuthill, the trainer of Young Corbett, to the effect that Corbett strained his back in the second round of his battle with Unk Russell, and was fortunate to last out the six rounds in their fight at Philadelphia on Saturday night. In addition to the strain, Corbett's hands are sore from the hard training and the four fights he has engaged in the last few days, and it will be necessary to call off all fighting engagements for at least a month. Corbett will continue light training, however, as he means to follow out his idea of simply fighting hinself back into championship form again.

There is little doubt that in the hands of such an experienced man as Tuthill Young Corbett will eventually get into condition to meet any of the topnotchers.

GREAT VICTORY COST THE ELIS THEIR BEST QUARTER

NEW HAVEN, CONN... Nov. 6.—Yale's foot-ball eleven returned last night from New York City delighted at its record-breaking score of 53 points against Columbia. The coaches feel that their victory was costly, because "Tad" Jones, Yale's lightning quarterback, was crippled. An examination of the injury, which compelled him to retire from the game, showed that his ankle was severely sprained, and that he will be extremely lucky to be in condition for the Princeton and Harvard games.

"YALE ATHLETICS FOR YALE MEN," SAYS PROF. RICHARDS

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 6.—Prof. Richards, for twenty years chairman of Yale's Athletic Committee, said that he was in favor of a new eligibility rule which would prohibit men who had been to other colleges from playing on Yale teams. He thinks the one-year residence rule for foreign athletics now in vosue is too mild. He believes in Yale athletics for Yale athletes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., November 6.—
Senator Burrows, of Michigan, the chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, who has arrived in Washington for the coming session of Congress, said to-night that he expected to have the case of Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, disposed of before the term ends. Senator Smoot's seat is being contested on the ground that he is a member of the Mormon hierarchy.

Senator Burrows said that if it is desired to present further testimony, the committee is willing to hear it. He stated that the committee will consider the case immediately after the reorganization and the filling of the vacancy caused by the retirement of Senator McComas, of Maryland.
